GC had two teams participating in the Mercer University Spring Programming Contest on February 28, 2009. This contest was modeled after the Southeast Region ACM's Programming Contest and had 30 teams participating from 11 different universities including Georgia Tech and Bob Jones University.

The two teams competing were:

Team A: Russell Holloway and Michael Holthausen

Team B: Scott Zhang , Ryan Cheek, and Daniel Yarborough

The advisor for ACM who accompanied the teams was Dr. Gita Phelps.
